

Hitachi Center for Technology and International Affairs

April 11, 2013

Japan Roundtable 2013 Perspectives from Japan on Nuclear Issues

– Security, Energy, and Lessons from History–

Program

Moderator

Kelly Sims Gallagher

Associate Professor of Energy and Environmental Policy The Fletcher School

Speakers

Session1: Voice from Hiroshima; nuclear weapons in history

Tadatoshi Akiba

Professor by special appointment, Hiroshima University
Former Mayor, City of Hiroshima

Session2: Nuclear International Security; US-Japan relations and East Asia

Kei Koga

Research fellow, International Security Program, The Belfer
Center, Harvard Kennedy School.

Session3: Peaceful use of nuclear technology and private business

John Yoshinari

Chief Operating Officer, GE-Hitachi Nuclear Energy, Ltd.

Closing Speech

Partha Ghosh

Visiting Professor of Strategic & Innovation Management, The Fletcher School
Professor of Practice at The Gordon Institute, Tufts University

- ❖ Date:
3:15-6:00pm April.11 (Thu), 2013
- ❖ Venue:
ASEAN Auditorium, The Fletcher
School, 160 Packard Avenue,
Medford, MA 02155

- ❖ Sponsored by:
The Hitachi Center of Technology and International Affairs, Consulate-General of Japan in Boston, The Fletcher School, The Center for International
Environment and Resource Policy
- ❖ Contact: jpirt2013@gmail.com
- ❖ Participation: RSVP required
<http://www.eventbrite.com/event/5909528559>