Consulate General of Japan in Boston

VIRTUAL SCHOOL VISIT REQUEST FORM

The School Visit Program of the Consulate General of Japan in Boston is an educational outreach program that sends staff from our cultural department to schools in the New England area to make presentations about Japan and conduct cultural workshops. Sessions usually last about an hour and are provided free of charge.

Note: As of 9/1/2021, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, all school visits will be conducted virtually over Zoom.

To schedule a session for your students, please have the classroom teacher or administrator who will oversee the session fill out the following information.
