5:00 PM – 6:30 PM

East Boston

Interested in learning more about the art of sushi making? Join the Boston Public Library for a unique demonstration with Chef Asai Junpei. He'll be teaching how to make sushi and temari sushi at the BPL - East Boston Branch. Class will be followed by a Q&A.

Registration for this class is required. If you would like to sign up for a spot, please email dbeltrao@bpl.org.

Chef Asai Junpei is the private chef for Consul-General of Japan in Boston Seiichiro Takahashi. He was born in Kawasaki city, Kanagawa prefecture.

After graduating from culinary school in Tokyo, he worked at French restaurants in Japan, and then Kaiseki (traditional multi-course Japanese dining) restaurants in both Tokyo and America, and since 2023 has been working as the private chef for the Consul-General of Japan.

He strives to show hospitality to guests through exquisite Japanese and French dishes utilizing various ingredients from Japan, New England, and around the world.

Programming at the Boston Public Library is funded through private support. To learn more about supporting the Library, please visit the Boston Public Library Fund's website.
