

Leadership, Followership, and Group Culture in a Changing Japan

CULTURAL & INNOVATIVE EVENINGS at CGJ Boston

When: 4:15 pm-5:15 pm
Friday, June 26, 2026
Where: 100 High St, 6th Fl
Boston, MA 02210

Japan is entering a new chapter shaped by demographic change, global connection, and increasing cultural diversity. Join an intercultural consultant, a visiting fellow at Harvard, and Global Business majors at Showa Boston as they explore how these changes are affecting Japanese group life, workplaces, and organizations—and discuss possible paths forward.

Cyrus Segawa Konstantinacos, Ed.D.
Intercultural Consultant, Harvard University
Instructor, Showa Boston Institute

Yoshiatsu Murata, M.B.A.
Associate - Weatherhead Center on U.S.-Japan Relations
Harvard University

Free tickets here!